File No./33-06

SUBJECT.

Bhikshe to the Peejavara Swami at Udipi (S. Canara Dt.)

From

The Swami of the matt.

Regd. No. 159 Dated 7 July 1906.

In his Srimukha the Swami of the Pejavar matt at Udipi ~~requests~~ reports that he proposes to stop at Bangalore for the Chaturmasa Sankalpa and requests that ~~the needful arrangements~~ accommodation ~~be~~ might be given to him.

The Peejavar matt is one of the ~~8~~ 8 matts at Udipi, the Swamies of which manage the Sri Krishnava Devaru temple at Udipi by turns It enjoys a Muzrai Cash allowance of Rs 261-13-0 per annum payable from the Tirthahalli Taluk. The Swami is now at Tumkur and he comes to Bangalore ~~on the on the~~

It has also land endowments in British territory.

The Swami has not intimated to this Office when he is coming here and where he means putting up. I have told his Agent that he must make his own arrangements for accommodation as it would not be convenient to spare the Govt Chatram for such a length of time as two months.

As a mark of respect it is usual in such cases for a local Officer to go and receive the Swami on his arrival and take him to his place of residence. I shall write to the D/Comr on the point

It is usual also to give a sum of Rs. 50/- for the first days
